Remote learning and working remotely have become norms during the pandemic. This exhibit allows for remote play. Each activity in this space is a game that encourages participation by people of all ages, whether visiting the museum in-person or online. Games only work when people play them. So, play. Discover. Add to the conversation. Stitch your story into the fabric of the community.

*That you are here – that life exists and identity,
That the powerful play goes on, and you may contribute a verse.*

WAYS TO PLAY

The Urban Dictionary defines word up as a greeting, a way to acknowledge and agree with a statement. In this interaction, we ask you, the visitor, to respond to our prompt using just one word. What word will you choose to represent your reaction? Your word will be hand-written by a staff member and posted anonymously in a wall collage, acting as a collective image of our community conscience. Our prompts will change every two weeks.

What word comes to mind when you think about: _____

7/9-7/19	Home
7/21-8/2	Nature
8/4-8/16	Family
8/18-8/30	Self

Our prompts will change every two weeks. Email your word to RemoteControlFigge@gmail.com with the Subject: Word.

This fun activity allows for new and nonsensical stories to be created with words that you choose. CLICK HERE to use the Google Form and send in 8 words in this order...

We are apart, but together we share dreams, realities, and experiences. Join our Figge Art Museum photo album as we share images sourced from our community in response to one-word prompts. Your photo will be added to our digital album, printed, and anonymously placed on the wall in this exhibition. The photo you choose should reflect your response to the prompt, which will change every two weeks.
